GALLERY SUNDAY: OIL PAINTING BY MALINDA PRUD'HOMME

Not only do we get to see some impressive artwork from Malinda Prud'homme today, but we get to see the step-by-step process of how she made it. Enjoy!

Malinda's Artwork "Colour Inspired Beauty" In Progress ...

Malinda is thrilled to share the artist process of her artwork "Coloured Inspired Beauty" which was created over multiple days. The piece was inspired by the colours in the background which the artist felt would complement the colours of the curvaceous beauty Christina Hendricks. She hopes the piece exudes beauty, glamour, and a pop of fun.

Watch Malinda's portrait "Winter Beauty" Come to Life ...

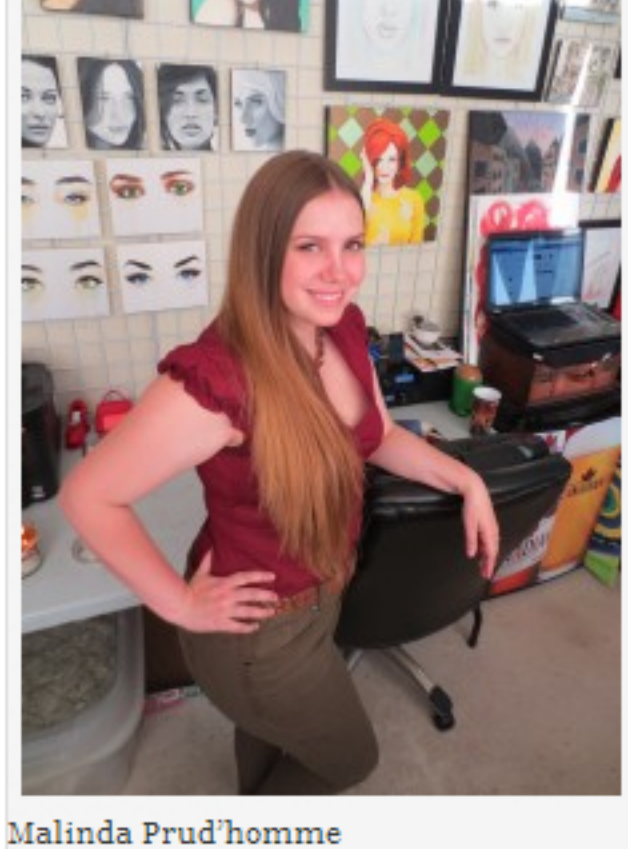

Winter Beauty

This oil painting took more than 30 hours and, due to the slow drying time of oil paint, took over a month to complete. Malinda hopes you enjoy watching her in action. J

Biography:

Malinda Prud'homme

Malinda Prud'homme is a small town Canadian girl who dreamt of moving to Toronto and pursuing her passion of becoming a full time artist. Her work focuses on portraying natural beauty which, more often than not, takes the form of naturally beautiful women. Her portraiture ranges from extremely realistic oil paintings to expressive mixed media creations. With each piece she hopes to resonate that all women are unique and naturally beautiful. In this way she hopes that her works express not only exterior female beauty, but female inner beauty and strength as well.

Love the art... but that movie was the bomb! I need to learn how to do that. I would make people watch everything I do all the time... but faster.
